BirdiTM
perching stool

movement. comfort. birdi.

The Birdi perching stool helps you be on-the-move and stay active during your day. With the Birdi you can rock, tilt, swivel, or be stationary all while comfortably seated. The proprietary seat cushion design reduces pressure points improving comfort over other perching stools. With 10 inches of height adjustment, it is the ideal work gear solution, whether you are sitting or perching, in any environment.
