Ergonomic guidelines

1   Adjustable monitor arms help eliminate the tendency to sit in awkward positions by maintaining the proper viewing distance, height and angle of the monitor. Monitor arms keep the neck, shoulders and back in the proper posture to reduce muscle fatigue. They also free up the workspace to reduce clutter and increase efficiency and collaboration. Using dual monitors can increase productivity over a single monitor.

2   CPU holders raise the CPU off the floor, making them easier for the user to reach and reducing the tendency to stretch into an awkward position. CPU holders also help free up workspace as well as leg room in user's workstation.

3   Adjustable keyboard platforms help maintain a neutral wrist position and eliminate strain, improper posture, and discomfort. Proper keyboard positioning can help eliminate musculoskeletal disorders.

4   Adjustable task lighting gives the user maximum control of their own workspace lighting for optimal comfort, and help reduce eyestrain and fatigue. Engery efficient lights can reduce energy consumption and costs.

5   Height adjustable workstations give users the flexibility to change positions frequently and easily throughout the day, which improves health and productivity.

6   Footrests can help decrease circulation problems that can occur from long periods of sitting or inactivity. By supporting the legs, footrests can relieve pressure on the lower back.

Monitor arms

Adaptable for any workspace, flexible monitor arms can optimize your desk space and increase your productivity. Easily adjust up to six monitors to maximize comfort and efficiency. Configurations grow with you, so your monitors will keep pace with your needs.

Evolve fixed arms
Evolve configurations using only fixed arms (F) have manual height adjustment. They rotate left and right along the pole, offering flexibility with lateral adjustments.

Slider mount
Position virtually any monitor side-by-side with a slider. The slider (S) offers eight and a half inches of horizontal adjustability, so even monitors of varying sizes can be positioned flush.
